CE 80N Quiz 10, June 4, 2015

1. (5 points) The answers to these five questions come from the following list of five terms: product, Internet of Things, customer, embedded computer, and fragmentation.

(a) The tendency of companies to organize their networked devices into incompatible groups is ________________

(b) This set of devices and servers communicate with each other.

______________

(c) The controller of an electronic appliance is an example of this.

______________

(d) You are paying a monthly fee to use a web service. You probably are a

______________

(e) You are using a free web service. Probably you are the

______________

2. (1 point) What does an “Internet of Things hub” do?

IoT hub is a special access point for IoT devices to access internet

3. (1 point) What do we mean by “the Cloud”?

Data servers communicating with IoT devices

4. (1 point) A firm that provides a free on-line service sells the customer data that it collects. This act is called

______________

5. (1 point) When different kinds of Internet of Things devices are able to coordinate their operation, we call this

______________

(1 free point to make 10 total)
CE 80N Quiz 10, June 4, 2015

1. (5 points) The answers to these five questions come from the following list of five terms: product, Internet of Things, customer, embedded computer, and fragmentation.

(a) The controller of an electronic appliance is an example of this.

(b) You are paying a monthly fee to use a web service. You probably are a

(c) You are using a free web service. Probably you are the

(d) The tendency of companies to organize their networked devices into incompatible groups is

(e) This set of devices and servers communicate with each other.

2. (1 point) What do we mean by “the Cloud”?

3. (1 point) What does an “Internet of Things hub” do?

4. (1 point) A firm that provides a free on-line service sells the customer data that it collects. This act is called

5. (1 point) When different kinds of Internet of Things devices are able to coordinate their operation, we call this

(1 free point to make 10 total)
CE 80N Quiz 10, June 4, 2015

1. (5 points) The answers to these five questions come from the following list of five terms: product, Internet of Things, customer, embedded computer, and fragmentation.

(a) You are using a free web service. Probably you are the

PRODUCT

(b) The tendency of companies to organize their networked devices into incompatible groups is

FRAGMENTATION

(c) This set of devices and servers communicate with each other.

INTERNET OF THINGS

(d) The controller of an electronic appliance is an example of this.

EMBEDDED COMPUTER

(e) You are paying a monthly fee to use a web service. You probably are a

CUSTOMER

2. (1 point) What do we mean by “the Cloud”?

Data servers communicating with IoT devices

3. (1 point) What does an “Internet of Things hub” do?

IoT hub is a special access point for IoT devices to access Internet

4. (1 point) When different kinds of Internet of Things devices are able to coordinate their operation, we call this

INTEROPERABILITY

5. (1 point) A firm that provides a free on-line service sells the customer data that it collects. This act is called

MONETIZATION

(1 free point to make 10 total)